

STATEMENT OF CANDIDATE FOR CITY OF LODI
COUNCIL MEMBER

TAJ KHAN

Age:55

Occupation: Engineering Consultant

My education and qualifications are: Sixteen year residents of City of Lodi, my wife Shakila and I are proud to have raised Zeest, who graduated from Lodi High, Mena who is a senior and Joher, who is a freshman.

Since receiving my Bachelors of Engineering degree in 1966, I attended North-eastern University and worked in various capacities as Professional Engineer and manager in major engineering companies in US and overseas. I recently took early retirement from SMUD as Project Manager to start engineering consulting business.

I bring technical and economic perspectives for solutions to the problems of Water, Garbage, Streets, Parks, Police, Fire de-regulated Electricity etc. In my 32-year career I have managed budgets, prioritized expenses and worked within my means for multi-million dollar projects in private and public sectors. I have managed social service organizations, volunteered time, and arranged fund-raisers for numerous community and international causes. Currently I am President of Perkins Rotary Club and Member of Advisory Board Lodi Memorial Hospital and participate in various other social organizations.

I promise not to spend your money on frivolous programs.

With my fiscally conservative background and desire to help this community I am qualified to take on challenges and capitalize on opportunities. Please support me.
